Further information:

I – ROOMS

Rooms are places to study and rest, and therefore, residents should keep quiet and avoid noise – making and disturbing other colleagues, both in rooms and adjoining corridors. Joining our College, the room will be provided in perfect conditions of use to each resident as well as the objects contained inside the room. Throughout the stay in our College, it is the responsibility of the resident to take care of this material, and warn of any breakdown or damage that may occur in order to solve it as soon as possible.

Each resident will receive a room key, and has to take care of it. If the resident is away one whole day, it would be necessary to leave the card in the Reception Desk. Room changes requested during the period of the contract must be authorized by the Management Committee.

The College will not be held responsible of the disappearance or deterioration of any personal object, work or valuable material (money, jewelry, etc.)

II – COMMON AREAS

The College counts on spaces and common areas, such as: entrance hall, study areas, libraries, TV rooms, exterior sport area, gym, ping pong, self – service laundry (washing machine, dryer, folding table and ironing board), etc., which are available to residents at certain schedules.
